

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. Telephone Privacy law has improved dinner time at home with my family by completely stopping the annoying unwanted phone calls. We have been able to sit down to dinner and talk with our 4 children without interruptions. I used to receive 2-3 calls a night, now we dont get any. Please DO NOTchange Indiana's law.